V.

ALIREZA BAKHTIARI
RESPONDENT

On November 19th 2012, the Court sentenced respondent to a period of incarceration followed by three years of supervised release. After being discharged from incarceration, within 72 hours, the respondent reported to the US probation at the Eastern District of Missouri, the St. Louis office. Within a matter of days after respondent's release from incarceration, Honorable Judge Richard Webber met with the respondent in person, along with a representative from the US probation of the Eastern District of Missouri. The Honorable Judge indicated that contingent upon respondent's re-entry and the respondent's adjustment under supervised release, the Court would consider discretionary early discharge from supervised release. The respondent has no entitlements, or legal rights to early discharge from supervised release. Such a discharge is completely at the discretion of this Court.

Respondent has been fully compliant with the terms of his supervised release with no incident. The respondent has been regularly in contact with his probation officer - Ms. Lisa Berry - via telephone, email or in person visits. While on supervised release, the respondent has interacted a few times with the law enforcement officers during regular traffic stops. Within minutes after each interaction, the respondent has reported his law enforcement contact, with specific details, to the probation office. The respondent has not exited the geographical confines of Eastern District of Missouri, unless by the permission of the probation office.

The respondent respectfully moves this Honorable Court for discretionary early discharge by six months, and he further prays for any and all other relief deemed just and proper under the circumstances.
